REMARKS

50X1-HUM

50X1-HUM

1. During the period of martial law, there were no demonstrations in Naumburg. 50X1-HUM Trucks [redacted] and jeep [redacted] patrolled the streets. The Luetrich Kaserne was occupied by about 350 troops with 28 trucks, [redacted]

[redacted] and others [redacted] which were on the alert. During the night of 25 June, the troops temporarily stationed there, left the installation. After 26 June, the military installations in Naumburg were occupied as prior to 18 June.<sup>1</sup>

2. On 13 July, the Lossa training area appeared to be occupied to capacity. 50X1-HUM
 The Wiehe-Heldrungen road was vacant. Trucks [redacted] were seen in Garnbach, proceeding toward Wiehe.

1. Comment. Elements of the units stationed at Kindel had been absent from the training area from 17/18 June to 26 June 50X1-HUM
 Individual motor vehicles of these units, along with soldiers of headquarters units of the XXIX Gds Mtz Rifle Corps and the 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div, were seen in Naumburg during the period mentioned.

2. Comment. Elements of the 21st Gds Mecz Div from the Lossa training area were employed in the Halle area after 17 June. The units had apparently returned to the Lossa training area by 13 July. The motor vehicles observed in Garnbach belong to this division.
